

Stay with us in Kitzbühel and enjoy Fly Fishing

DESTINATION Kitzbühel, Austria

Become one with nature

For all fishing enthusiasts who are looking for a special challenge and want to become one with nature, the fast-flowing mountain streams offer numerous shelters and sweep waters with several shallow places - which are also considered the "nursery" of the fish. The varied area consists of the Großache near Erpfendorf, the somewhat faster flowing mountain stream "Spertentaler Ache near Kirchberg" and the wild mountain river "Kitzbüheler Ache". The fishing area offers fish countless shelters, trickling stretches and pools and anglers an exceptional number of chances for a great catch. All that remains is for us to wish Petri Heil or Tight Lines!
